Josiah prophesied 340 years earlier (1 Ki 13:2)

Mannasseh introduces every evil practice to Judah. God sends prophets to announce judgement upon Judah for the sins of Mannasseh. Mannasseh fills the streets of Jerusalem with innocent blood (2 Ki 21:16).

Josiah's relative—a descendant of Hezekiah (Ze 1:1)

Prophecies of the coming judgment upon Judah, Jerusalem and the surrounding nations with emphasis on the consequences for the royal household (Ze 1-3)

Josiah may have spent remainder of reign continuing to reform and prepare the temple (2Ch 35:20)

Josiah began to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah prophecied 340 years earlier (1 Ki 13:2)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah's relative—a descendent of Hezekiah (Ze 1:1)

Josiah's relative—a descendent of Hezekiah (Ze 1:1)

Josiah may have spent remainder of reign continuing to reform and prepare the temple (2Ch 35:20)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah has forsaken God (Jer 2-6)

Jeremiah stands in the temple gates and calls for repentance (Jer 7-10)

Prophecy against Egypt & Philistia (Jer 47)

In spite of reforms Habakkuk despairs at the iniquities of Judah he continues to witness (Ha 1-3)

Jeremiah (a priest of Anathoth) called and commissioned by God (Jer 1)

Men of Anathoth conspire against Jeremiah (Jer 11-12)

Jeremiah laments for Josiah (2 Ch 35:25)

Jehoahaz never to return & warning for Jehoahaz (Jer 22)

Men of Anathoth conspire against Jeremiah (Jer 11-12)

Prophecy against Egypt & Philistia (Jer 47)

In spite of reforms Habakkuk despairs at the iniquities of Judah he continues to witness (Ha 1-3)

Jeremiah (a priest of Anathoth) called and commissioned by God (Jer 1)

Josiah prophecied 340 years earlier (1 Ki 13:2)

Mannasseh introduces every evil practice to Judah. God sends prophets to announce judgement upon Judah for the sins of Mannasseh. Mannasseh fills the streets of Jerusalem with innocent blood (2 Ki 21:16).

Josiah's relative—a descendant of Hezekiah (Ze 1:1)

Prophecies of the coming judgment upon Judah, Jerusalem and the surrounding nations with emphasis on the consequences for the royal household (Ze 1-3)

Josiah may have spent remainder of reign continuing to reform and prepare the temple (2Ch 35:20)

Josiah began to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah prophecied 340 years earlier (1 Ki 13:2)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah may have spent remainder of reign continuing to reform and prepare the temple (2Ch 35:20)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah prophecied 340 years earlier (1 Ki 13:2)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah may have spent remainder of reign continuing to reform and prepare the temple (2Ch 35:20)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah prophecied 340 years earlier (1 Ki 13:2)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah prophecied 340 years earlier (1 Ki 13:2)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)

Josiah commences repairs of the temple under the supervision of Hilkiah the high priest. The Book of the Law (five books of Moses) is found in the temple and read to the King who tears his garments at the judgments prophecied for Judah and enquires of the Lord by Huldah the prophetess (2 Ki 22:3-14)

Josiah begins to seek the God of David his father (2 Ch 34:3)